Leigh's Priorities for Ajax

On August 15, 2021, less than two years after Canadians previously went to the polls, Prime Minister Justin Trudeau announced that he was dragging Canada into another costly federal election so he could attempt to obtain a parliamentary majority. While Canadians struggled to pay their bills, keep their jobs, and make changes to address the growing climate crisis, PM Trudeau and the Liberal Party spent millions during a pandemic on an attempt to convince Canadians to forget about their previously forgotten or failed election promises.

Leigh believes in finding a solution to the growing climate crisis and she knows that the only way to do this is through collective action. Leigh also knows that this solution will influence many aspects of Canadians' lives. Leigh and the Green Party are committed to finding a just and responsible transition away from fossil fuels to properly address the climate crisis as well as empowering Canadian workers and their families, so they are equipped to work in the jobs of the future.

It's Election Time! Here's what you need to know:

These past five weeks have flown by and now it's time to hit the polls to choose the Members of Canada's 44th Parliament that will lead this country through the most significant crisis in its history – the climate emergency. You have an opportunity to let your voice be heard and to choose leadership for Ajax and Canada that can make a fair and just difference for our country and influence positive change for all Canadians. Now is the time to let those in Ottawa know that Canadians are concerned for the fate of their country and the planet. Support Leigh and vote Green on election day, September 20, 2021.

Please read on below for more important election information. You may also go to Leigh's website to find out more: Leighpaulseth.ca.

What Leigh and her Team have accomplished this election season

Since August 15, 2021, Leigh and the Ajax Green Party have been knocking on thousands of doors and spoken to hundreds of people across Ajax. Over one-hundred signs have been posted by the inhabitants of Ajax on their own properties to show their neighbours and the country that they are ready for sustainable and responsible change. Leigh has also participated in four debates and forums, including those hosted by the Ajax-Pickering Board of Trade and 100 Debates on Climate, on issues ranging from addressing the toxins affecting our planet to the fastest and most responsible route to a sustained and fair economic recovery. Leigh has also appeared on KX96 Country Radio and AjaxPickering.ca to get her message out, and her commitment remains to represent all voters in our Town, regardless of background or political affiliation. Leigh and her team are not shy to talk about any of the important issues the people of Ajax have raised, and we will continue to do so right up until election day – and longer, if Leigh has the privilege of representing our wonderful Town in Parliament. To watch the debates Leigh attended in Ajax, please go to the Media and Endorsement page on Leigh's website.

But we are not done yet. Leigh will be out with her team right up until Sunday, September 19, 2021, speaking to the inhabitants of Ajax and discussing their concerns. It is safe to say, no other party candidate and their campaign team seeking to represent Ajax in the upcoming election has done more than Leigh and her team to prove her passion and energy for representing you.

If you have an issue or question you would like Leigh to comment on it may already be posted on her website, please check out our Vision and FAQ sections at: Leighpaulseth.ca. If you cannot find the response you are looking for, email us, at: Leigh.paulseth@greenparty.ca, and we will be happy to provide an answer.

Find out where you can vote

Due to the ongoing Covid-19 pandemic, Elections Canada has made changes to the poll locations you may have previously used to cast your ballot in the past. Please go to the Elections Canada website and have your postal code ready to input to find your poll location. Or, look on your voter registration card. Eligible Ajax voters will be typically voting at one of Ajax's tremendous community centres: Ajax Community Centre, McClean Community Centre, and the Audley Recreation Centre. Please click here to visit the Elections Canada website and see where and how you can vote in Ajax this federal election.

Need help getting to a polling station on election day to cast your vote? We can help

Do you require assistance getting to and from a polling station to cast your vote on election day? Leigh and her team of Green supporters are here to help.
